If you are eager to travel and have the extra cash, these elite hotels now offer private flights with your reservation. The move comes in response to the hotel industry's economically devastating months in light of COVID-19. The new service is intended to lure guests from around the world and revitalize the industry that is teetering on devastation.

The pandemic has caused travelers to be more concerned with privacy, flexibility, and safety, causing private jet rental inquiries to increase 75% compared to this time last year, according to Air Charter Service CEO Justin Bowman of private plane bookings.

Here's what you can expect if you are looking to book your next luxury getaway.

The Private Passport to Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal, Mexico includes round-trip private transfers from anywhere in the US to Cabo San Lucas's International Airport, as well as private terminal and customs clearance upon arrival. The private flights are included with your seven-night stay in a two-bedroom ocean-view suite, which features a private plunge pool, a personal concierge and butler service.
